Ngayong araw, sinampahan ko ng iba't ibang kaso sina Levito Baligod, 18 “ex-Marines,” Mike Defensor, Jay Sonza, Lorraine Badoy, at Cathy Binag sa DoJ.

Ang kanilang gawa-gawang "bribery scheme" ay isang desperadong paraan para dungisan ang mga pagdinig sa ICC at takutin ang mga investigators at witnesses nito. Pananagotin natin sila dahil dito.

Regardless of what point anyone may be trying to make, and even more so when coming from a public official, there is no justification for language that objectifies or degrades a woman. Such remarks diminish not only the individual concerned but also undermine the dignity of women and the respect that every person deserves.

Vice President Sara Duterte meets with former 1-Rider Rep. and retired police Col. Bonifacio Bosita, fueling speculation that he might again join the senatorial race under her ticket in the 2028 national elections.
Their discussion reportedly included policy matters long advocated by Bosita, such as the protection of motorists' rights, reforms in traffic law enforcement and clearer implementation of road regulations.

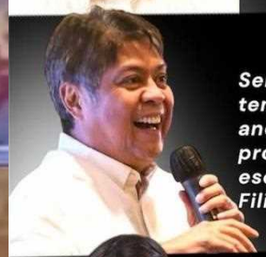
Mayor Leni Robredo has signed Executive Order No. 12, Series of 2026, directing all local government offices to reduce fuel consumption and improve energy efficiency in compliance with the Inter-Agency Energy Efficiency and Conservation Committee's advisory.

Senator Bam Aquino has filed Senate Bill No. 1923 to grant the President the power to temporarily suspend the excise tax on fuel, enabling the government to act immediately if oil prices continue to rise due to tensions in the Middle East.



Senator Kiko calls on the government to temporarily suspend the excise tax on fuel and immediately activate fuel subsidy programs to mitigate the impact of the escalating tension in the Middle East on Filipino workers.

Vice President Sara Duterte is calling for a permanent ban on protest motorcades and vehicle caravans.

Philippines president claims he sexually assaulted maid as a teenager

Duterte under fire after retelling story about twice attempting to molest domestic worker while she slept

By AFP and TOI STAFF
31 December 2018, 8:42 am

Di mo maaalis sa mag-asawa na ang paniwala, lalo kami, ako, na meron kang sexual rights sa asawa mo.

Halimbawa, hindi mo naman pinipili kung kailan ka in heat. Papaano kapag ayaw ng asawa mo? Wala pong ibang paraan talaga para ma-ano yung lalaki? Papaano 'yun? Mambabae ka na lang ba? Edi kaso na naman 'yun.

So anong pwede mong sabihin sa asawa mo na, 'Pa'no ako? Wala ka sa mood, paano ako nasa mood?' Wala kaming choice bigla, ganun na lang, matulog kana lang?

Naghain ng patong-patong na reklamo sa Office of the Ombudsman ang grupong kababaihan mula sa World March of Women–Pilipinas laban kay Cong. Bong Suntay dahil sa hindi anila katanggap-tanggap na pahayag nito laban sa aktres na si Anne Curtis.

Kasabay nito, nagsagawa rin ng simbolikong protesta ang grupo sa harap ng Ombudsman bilang bahagi ng paggunita sa International Women's Day.

'DO YOU HAVE A FILIPINO BOYFRIEND?'

Binatikos ng netizens si Sen. Jinggoy Estrada matapos tanungin ang Gilas Pilipinas Women prospect na si Elizabeth Jeanette Means kung mayroon siyang kasintahang Pinoy, at imungkahi na mag-apply si Sen. Kiko Pangilinan.

Sinabi ito ng senador sa pagdinig ng Senate Committee on Justice and Human Rights sa naturalization ni Means.

Minsan nasa Shangri-La ako, nakita ko si Anne Curtis. Ang ganda-ganda pala niya. You know, may desire sa loob ko na nag-init talaga, at na-imagine ko na lang kung ano ang pwedeng mangyari. Pero siyempre hanggang imagination lang 'yun.

I want to be unequivocally clear: My children and I do not agree with, and we do not condone, the analogy made by Bong. The news circulating, that I laughed and therefore approved of what was said is false, I will not allow that narrative to stand unchallenged.
To Anne Curtis and her family — I am deeply sorry. No woman should ever be spoken about that way, and I understand if words alone feel insufficient. Please know that my heart goes out to you, and I stand with you.

#nepalelection2026 #nepal #polls

Nepal goes to the polls in its first parliamentary elections since the Gen Z uprising of 2025, a period marked by widespread protests and political unrest. Citizens across the country are voting for representatives in a high-stakes election that could reshape the nation's political landscape. Young voters are playing a decisive role, reflecting the demands of the previous year's demonstrations....more

That analogy was not meant maliciuously. It was an analogy based on the context of the impeachment hearings. It may have been in bad taste for some. I apologize kung meron tayong mga sensitivities na tinamaan but that was not the intention.
Rep. Bong Suntay
When a congressman publicly narrates his ‘desire’ and imagination about a woman he once saw... it reinforces a culture that treats women as consumable, as spectacle, as fantasy, as objects for commentary rather than as whole human beings with agency, intellect, and autonomy.

ON ALLEGATIONS OF 18 'EX-MARINES'
Tila walang interes o agarang hakbang mula sa kasalukuyang administrasyon na siyasatin ang katotohanan hinggil sa mga bilyon-bilyong suhol kaugnay ng flood control, ng ICC, at ng impeachment efforts laban sa akin.
Hindi dapat selective ang galit sa isyu ng katiwalian. Hindi maaaring pumili kung sino lamang ang iimbestigahan. At hindi maaaring manahimik tuwing ang mga sangkot ay malapit sa kapangyarihan.

ANONG KLASENG MINDSET 'TO?

Quezon City 4th District Rep. Bong Suntay was called out by several colleagues over his remarks about actress Anne Curtis, which he made while trying to establish a point during the House hearing on impeachment complaints against Vice President Sara Duterte.

Following the backlash, Suntay clarified that his statement was meant as a compliment, saying he believes Curtis is "very beautiful" and that it should be taken as such.

STATEMENT
On Recent Remarks Made by a Member of the House
Regarding TV Actress Anne Curtis
March 03, 2026
As the Vice Chairperson of the House of Representatives' Committee on Women and Gender Equality in the 20th Congress, I firmly believe that any form of disrespect directed at women will not be accepted. Women should always be treated with respect and decency, regardless of their background.
I express deep concern over the recent remarks made by a Member of the House directed at Anne Curtis. Regardless of intent, statements that diminish, objectify, or disrespect women have no place in public discourse. They reinforce harmful attitudes that we have long been working to dismantle.
Our laws are clear. The Safe Spaces Act, also known as Republic Act No. 11313, emphasizes the state's commitment to preventing gender-based sexual harassment on the streets, public spaces, internet platforms, workplaces, and educational institutions. It acknowledges that words, gestures, and actions that devalue or objectify women contribute to a culture of harassment and inequality.
There is no room — in Congress or anywhere else — for statements that demean, objectify, or disrespect women. Public office demands discipline, accountability, and respect. When a woman is reduced to commentary that undermines her dignity, we do not merely offend one individual — we reinforce a culture that tolerates sexism and trivializes women's worth.
I stand in solidarity with all women who expect and deserve respect in all settings, public or private. I am committed to pushing legislation and initiatives that defend women's rights and dignity, not just this month, but every day.
Respect is not optional. Equality is not negotiable.
REP. KATHRYN JOYCE F. GORRICETA, M.D.
Vice Chairperson, Committee on Women and Gender Equality

Legendary AFL commentator Dennis Cometti has passed away, aged 76.

Cometti, beloved by fans and industry alike, was one of the defining voices of Aussie rules football, known for trademark turns of phrase such as "centimetre perfect."

Cometti's last game as an active AFL commentator was Melbourne's 2021 Grand Final victory in Cometti's native Perth.

Rep. Bong Suntay must apologize and make the necessary amends to Ms. Anne Curtis. There is absolutely no excuse for his repulsive remarks.

Ang mas nakakabahala, patuloy pa niyang iginigiit na walang mali sa kanyang sinabi. The Representative must be reminded that under the Bawal Bastos Law, which I authored, gender-based harassment is punishable. Statements of sexual comments and suggestions can be penalized. As a lawmaker, he should know this. More importantly, he is duty-bound to uphold it.

As we celebrate Women's Month, this incident is a reminder that advancing women's dignity and basic respect is continuous work; work that must be asserted, defended, and reaffirmed, again and again.

'ANG BINIGYANG PANSIN 'YONG ANALOGY KAY ANNE CURTIS'... more

'Yon nga 'yong kinalulungkot ko eh, na lahat ng tao, lahat ng news outlets, lahat ng reporter, ang binigyang pansin 'yong analogy kay Anne Curtis, hindi natin binigyang pansin 'yong kaimportansyahan nitong impeachment hearing na ginaganap ngayon, itong sa committee on justice.

Ngayon ini-interview ako about sa statement ko kay Anne Curtis. So in a way, siguro, if you want to drive a point, you need to take a hit. And this is my hit, na meron akong criticism."

Minsan nasa Shangri-La ako, nakita ko si Anne Curtis. Ang ganda-ganda pala niya. You know, may desire sa loob ko na nag-init talaga, at na-imagine ko na lang kung ano ang pwedeng mangyari. Pero siyempre hanggang imagination lang 'yun.

HOLD DEPARTURE ORDER VS YAP BROTHERS

The Sandiganbayan has issued a precautionary hold departure order against former ACT-CIS party-list Rep. Edvic Yap and Benguet Rep. Eric Yap, the Office of the Ombudsman confirmed Tuesday, March 3, 2026.

The brothers are among several House members under investigation for alleged flood control project anomalies.

In December 2025, President Ferdinand "Bongbong" Marcos Jr. said the Anti-Money Laundering Council had frozen their assets and those of related construction firms.

@TheComputerParts/@WideTVOfficial's Statement regarding the Issue inside Fanmade Community

OFFICIAL STATEMENT

To the Fanmade Community,

I am writing this to express my concerns regarding the ongoing negativity within the fanmade space. Recently, I have observed an increasing number of individuals who disregard the fundamental concept of "fanmade" content. Instead of fostering creativity and appreciation, some have resorted to labeling works as mere copies or engaging in unnecessary criticism.

What is even more concerning is the presence of trolls who actively seek to disrupt and discourage content creators. This behavior is evident across multiple platforms, including Fanmade Archives (FA), where unnecessary negativity is directed at creators' efforts. As someone who has contributed to the community, I have personally experienced this, and it has led me to step back from actively posting new content.

The impact of such behavior extends beyond frustration. It affects creators' motivation, self-esteem, and even mental health. Seeing harsh criticism or baseless accusations can lead individuals to question their efforts, consider quitting, or, in worst cases, struggle with serious emotional distress. This is not the kind of environment a creative community should cultivate.

While I am not the owner or leader of FA, I feel the need to raise awareness about this issue. Constructive feedback is always welcome, but intentional trolling and baseless accusations only serve to harm the very essence of what makes the fanmade community thrive—creativity and passion.

At this point, my participation in the community has significantly decreased, with my recent uploads being reuploads or compilations rather than original content. Like many others, I am exhausted by this situation. I hope that moving forward, we can all work toward a more respectful and supportive space for creators who simply want to share their passion.

Sincerely,
TheComputerParts aka WideTV

Hi folks, these days, when someone is having a health issue, it's referred to as an "opportunity," so let's go with that – I'm having one of those. It's also called a type of cancer that's "treatable" not "curable." I apologize if that's a shock – it was to me too.

The good news is, I'm not gonna go into any more detail. I'm posting this, because professionally, a few things will have to change – appearances and cons and work in general need to take back seat to treatment.

My plan is to get as well as I possibly can over the summer so that I can tour with my new movie Fruic & Emma this fall.

There are several cons this year summer that I have to cancel. Big regrets on my part. Treatment needs and professional obligations don't always go hand-in-hand.

That's about it. I'm not trying enlist sympathy – or advice – I just want to get ahead of this information in case false information gets out (which it will).

Fear not, I am a tough old son-of-a-bitch and I have great support, so I expect to be around a while.

As always, you're the greatest fans in the world and I hope to see you soon!

Much love,

Bruce Campbell

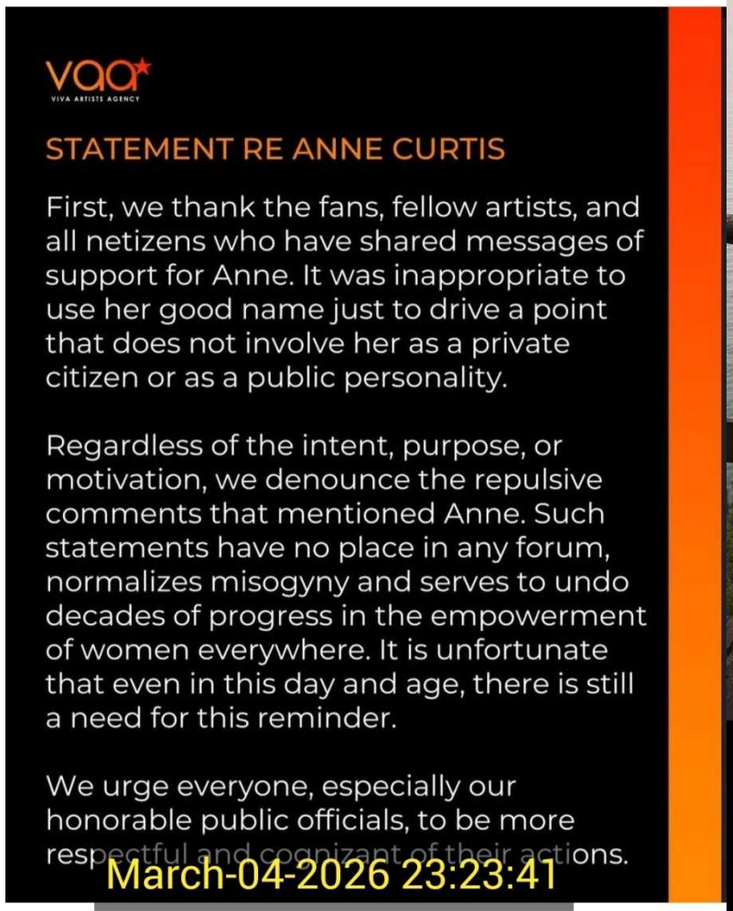
LOOK: Viva Artists Agency said in a statement it denounces the “repulsive comments” that mentioned Anne Curtis.

It added that such statements that normalize misogyny have no place in any forum and undoes decades of progress for women empowerment. | via Anna Cerezo, ABS-CBN News



VAA
VIVA ARTISTS AGENCY
STATEMENT RE ANNE CURTIS
First, we thank the fans, fellow artists, and all netizens who have shared messages of support for Anne. It was inappropriate to use her good name just to drive a point that does not involve her as a private citizen or as a public personality.
Regardless of the intent, purpose, or motivation, we denounce the repulsive comments that mentioned Anne. Such statements have no place in any forum, normalizes misogyny and serves to undo decades of progress in the empowerment of women everywhere. It is unfortunate that even in this day and age, there is still a need for this reminder.
We urge everyone, especially our honorable public officials, to be more respectful and cognizant of their actions.

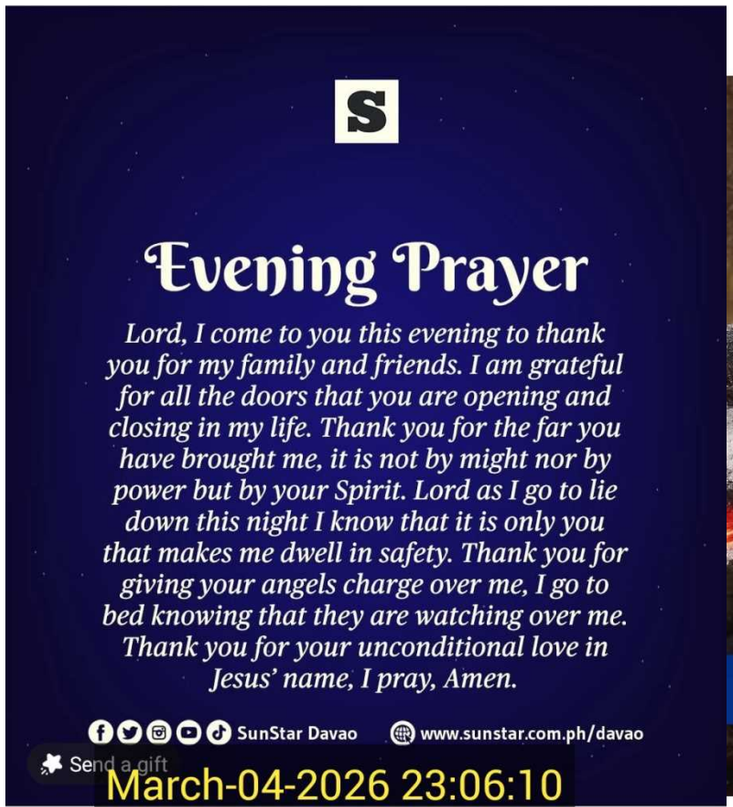
EVENING PRAYER

#AllYouNeedToKnow



Evening Prayer
Lord, I come to you this evening to thank you for my family and friends. I am grateful for all the doors that you are opening and closing in my life. Thank you for the far you have brought me, it is not by might nor by power but by your Spirit. Lord as I go to lie down this night I know that it is only you that makes me dwell in safety. Thank you for giving your angels charge over me, I go to bed knowing that they are watching over me. Thank you for your unconditional love in Jesus' name, I pray, Amen.

This moment is not about one female celebrity. It is about how ALL WOMEN, regardless of profession, continue to be reduced to bodies in spaces dominated by men in power.
When a congressman publicly narrates his "desire" and imagination about a woman he once saw (or dreams he saw, idk his statements keep changing), it reinforces a culture that treats women as consumable, as spectacle, as fantasy, as objects for commentary rather than as whole human beings with agency, intellect, and autonomy.
Public office carries with it the responsibility to elevate discourse, not diminish it. The halls of government should be spaces where women are discussed for their contributions, their ideas, and their leadership — not as imagined scenarios.
We cannot continue excusing this as "just being honest" or "just a compliment." It is neither.
safer environments for our daughters, nieces, and future with those elected to represent us.

KEEP SAFE, ANNE!

Actress Anne Curtis captured a video of a high-speed jet flying beside the airplane she was on as she was making her way to Dubai.

"Was on my way to meet my little fam in Dubai when I noticed a high speed jet flying beside us. I notice another one and next thing I knew they announced we would be turning around to Milan due to the airstrikes," she narrated in her Instagram Story on Sunday.

Iran struck Dubai and other Middle Eastern countries as they retaliated against the US and Israel's attack on Saturday. (Instagram/Anne Curtis)

'GONE TOO SOON'

Children were killed in Duterte's war on illegal drugs. They were 3, 4, 5, 7, 12, 17 years old. They had homework to finish, exams the next day, Mass to attend, and most especially dreams to achieve.

Some were asleep, some were getting ready for school. But they were killed and became part of the thousands of Filipinos killed in the bloody war that the previous administration waged. As the ICC case against Duterte moves forward, families demand justice. For them, the search for accountability is inseparable from grief — and from the lives they say were taken too soon. | via Kurt Dela Peña, INQUIRER.net

ON IRAN ATTACK
Agad-agad na ipatupad ang crisis protocol sa mga dalawang milyong Pilipinong nagtatrabaho at naninirahan doon, kabilang na ang mga isang libong nasa Iran.
Para sa mga OFW natin, makipag-ugnayan agad sa mga community leader kung saan man kayo naroon para sa mas mabilis at maayos na evacuation o repatriation, kung anu't ano man.
Dito sa atin, dahil tiyak ang pagtaas ng presyo ng krudo, kailangang maipatupad agad-agad ang fuel subsidy sa mga tsuper ng tricycle, dyip, at bus, at gayun din sa mga magsasaka at mangingisda para sa kanilang mga traktora at bangka.
Kailangan ding mabilisang ipatupad ang pansamantalang pagsuspinde ng excise tax sa diesel at kerosene para maibsan nang bahagya ang siguradong pagsirit ng fuel prices.

BREAKING NEWS | Earthquake Felt in Iloilo, Students Evacuate at University of San Agustin

Iloilo City, March 2, 2026 — 6:13PM — A sudden earthquake was felt in parts of Iloilo this evening. Students at the University of San Agustin promptly evacuated their classrooms and are now gathered in designated safety areas, such as the USA Field, as a precaution. Authorities are monitoring the situation and advising everyone to stay in safe, open spaces until further updates.
